What Do Employers Want?
The Importance of Networking

As you know, networking and making professional contacts is crucial during the job search. Networking comes in many forms, such as personal and professional contacts, and enables students to learn about internships and jobs. Students often introduce themselves to others, and build a professional network that will serve as a source of important contacts. What’s the best way to start networking? Use LinkedIn. LinkedIn is an online networking site where students can build a professional network, search for internships and jobs, and discover new career opportunities.

Today, there are more ways than ever for your student to build a professional network. LinkedIn, for example, is a great way to leverage your professional social network and discover new career opportunities. LinkedIn offers a variety of resources to help students build a professional network, including tips and strategies for landing an internship, how to write a professional summary statement, and how to create an informative headline.

Students can think of LinkedIn profiles as interactive business cards that showcase their professional accomplishments and skills. In addition, LinkedIn offers a variety of resources to help students build a professional network, including tips and strategies for landing an internship, how to write a professional summary statement, and how to create an informative headline.

What Do Employers Want?

As always, we’re offering a lot of great opportunities to help students prepare for making the most of their career. We’ll also have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center.

For many of you, I'm sure you enjoyed last year's Career Fair, which offered a variety of resources and opportunities to help students prepare for making the most of their career. As always, we’re offering a lot of great opportunities to help students prepare for making the most of their career. We’ll also have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center.

The Importance of Networking

As you know, networking and making professional contacts is crucial during the job search. Networking comes in many forms, such as personal and professional contacts, and enables students to learn about internships and jobs. Students often introduce themselves to others, and build a professional network that will serve as a source of important contacts. What’s the best way to start networking? Use LinkedIn. LinkedIn is an online networking site where students can build a professional network, search for internships and jobs, and discover new career opportunities.

Today, there are more ways than ever for your student to build a professional network. LinkedIn, for example, is a great way to leverage your professional social network and discover new career opportunities. LinkedIn offers a variety of resources to help students build a professional network, including tips and strategies for landing an internship, how to write a professional summary statement, and how to create an informative headline.

Students can think of LinkedIn profiles as interactive business cards that showcase their professional accomplishments and skills. In addition, LinkedIn offers a variety of resources to help students build a professional network, including tips and strategies for landing an internship, how to write a professional summary statement, and how to create an informative headline.

What Do Employers Want?

As always, we’re offering a lot of great opportunities to help students prepare for making the most of their career. We’ll also have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center. We’ll have several workshops and events in advance of our annual Career Fair on Thursday, April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Center.